Miss Ruth Winter, who with her mother, Mrs. S. H. Winter of 2530 Orchard avenue, recently returned to Ogden from an extended visit in the east, is now a junior member of the teaching staff in the public schools of the city. Miss Winter has spent a delightful summer in Indianapolis, Chicago and other eastern cities and is pleased to again greet her many friends in this city.

Mrs. Winter and Miss Ruth were happy to be in Indianapolis when Sidney Winter, son and brother, arrived home from overseas, where he had been serving for seventeen months. The young man has returned to Colorado college at Colorado Springs, where he was a junior student in a general business and banking course.

Drama Club of Ogden To Give Two One-Act Plays At Club Convention.

Monday morning at the Ladies' Literary club home in Salt Lake City, the state federation of women's clubs will begin its annual convention. The meeting will open at 9 o'clock with an executive board meeting and a meeting of the presidents of the various clubs comprising the federation. At 10 a. m. there will be a general session and Mrs. C. W. Martin of Mant, Utah, will give the invocation. Community singing will be directed by Mrs. Ella C. Wetzel. Mrs. John A. Widetoe will give the address of welcome, as president of the federation, and Mrs. Glen Miller, president of the Ladies' Literary club of Salt Lake, will also give an address of welcome. The response will be given by Mrs. H. W. Cooper of Price, Utah, as president of the Sorosis club. Musical selections will follow and reports of stewardship will be given by the following: Mrs. E. O. Watts, vice president of the federation; Mrs. E. G. Gowan, corresponding secretary; Mrs. John Culley, recording secretary; Mrs. O. J. Enkins, treasurer; Mrs. E. E. Nelson, auditor; Mrs. Don R. Coray, journalist; Miss Edith Bowen, bureau of information; Mrs. E. E. Corfman, general federation secretary. Then will follow the presentation of new clubs by Mrs. W. F. Knox, state organizer, and responses will be made from the new club presidents. The appointment of committees and announcements will then be made. The afternoon meeting will be held, beginning at 2 o'clock, and an equally interesting program will be carried out. In the evening the real feature of the first day's program, as far as entertainment is concerned, will be given by the Drama club of Ogden, which will present two one-act plays, the first entitled "The Exchange," written by a pupil of Professor Lewis of the University of Utah. Mrs. Althea Thurston is the author of the play, which is an excellent one. The play, as written by Mrs. Thurston, was chosen by the ladies of the Drama club for two reasons; first, because of its excellence, and second, because of the desire to stimulate interest in the study of the technique of the one-act play, and for the promotion of home talent. In this play Mrs. Roland Ballantyne and Mrs. Clyde Greenwell will represent the Drama club and will be assisted by D. C. Sullivan, who is directing the play. Raymond Ryan and Hal Farr. The second play is "Lonesome-like" by a standard author. Harold Brighthouse and in this Mrs. Lila Eccles Rimbhall of the Drama club will direct and will take the leading role. She will be supported by Miss Minnie Moore Brown, Henry Anderson and Raymond Ryan.

The play committee from the local club is composed of Mrs. Roland Ballantyne, Mrs. Joseph Evans and Mrs. E. A. Larkin, and these ladies have made earnest efforts to assure the federation women a splendid entertainment for the first evening meeting. Opening the Monday evening program will be a number of musical artists from Ogden—Miss Helen Hunter, cellist; Mrs. George Barlow, pianist, and Miss Mary Fisher, violinist. The trio will give special numbers prior to the presentation of the plays and will furnish the music for the entire evening.

Child Culture Club. The ladies of the Child Culture club held one of the most interesting of their club meetings at the University club rooms last Thursday afternoon. Mrs. H. M. Barrows, as president of the club, presided and Attorney Arthur Woolley gave a splendid address on legislation concerning women and children. A lively discussion followed.

Dr. Alice Ridge, Mrs. Myrtle Larison and Miss L. Jennie Prout Home From Eastern Meeting

Last evening in the Eagles' hall on Grant avenue the ladies of Silver Review No. 1, Women's Benefit association of the Maccabees held their regular meeting and on this occasion were present the returned delegates who attended the convention at Port Huron the past month. Dr. Alice Ridge was the delegate from the state of Utah to the Peace Jubilee and Mrs. Myrtle Larison and L. Jennie Prout were the pathfinders. All gave an interesting account of the convention which was one of the largest ever held in the United States. The ladies from Ogden were honor guests of the association while in Port Huron and they were entertained on the flagship Noronic. Governor Stroeper of Michigan personally welcomed the guests at the opening of the convention when a reception was held in the W. D. A. home office building.

erhood of Railway Trainmen gave a card party in the I. O. O. F. hall last Wednesday at 3 o'clock and quite a number of the ladies were present. The afternoon was enjoyably spent and closed with the serving of a light luncheon.

Woodcraft Circle No. 581. The members of Woodcraft Circle No. 581 met at the home of Mrs. John Smalley last Tuesday evening and enjoyed card games and a social good time. Mrs. Smalley served a nicely prepared luncheon following the games.

Women of American Patriots. At the meeting of the Women of American Patriots held in the Elks' home last Monday evening, Superintendent Karl Hopkins of the city schools gave a splendid address. His address was preceded by a musical program and a short business session.

Ladies' Literary Club. The Ladies' Literary club of the city held their regular meeting last Wednesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. P. A. Herdtl and a splendid program of reading and discussion was carried out. Mrs. J. E. Wright gave the book review for the day which was, "Where There Is Love There Is God Also," by Tolstol. Mrs. L. N. Fulton gave the current magazine review. The guests of the club for the afternoon were Mrs. R. D. Robins and Mrs. L. A. Herdtl.

Following the regular club meeting Mrs. Wright served refreshments. The next meeting will be held in two weeks at the home of Mrs. Arnold Bowman, at her home in the Wright apartments.

Service Star Legion. According to word received in Ogden from the two Ogden delegates to the convention being held at Baltimore, "Service Star Legion" is the name that has been adopted by the various federations of Women's clubs of America as a name for the women's war organizations. Mrs. J. G. Falck and Mrs. Alice Collins are the ladies from Ogden who are representing the Women of American Patriots.

C. E. C. Club. The C. E. C. club held their annual banquet at the Potter cafe last Thursday evening and a most enjoyable time was spent by all members of the club. The dining table was most effectively decorated for the dinner party in a scheme of yellow and white and each little detail was very perfectly carried out. From the ceiling of the balcony room of the Potter cafe ribbon streamers in yellow and white were festooned to the four corners of the table, while the central decoration

Miss Cecelia Cohn.

Numbering among the delightful social events planned for the coming week is the Jewish Aid Society ball and program to be held in the Knights of Pythias lovely hall on Grant avenue Friday, October 17. The program will consist of splendid musical selections and readings, as well as short addresses, and no feature adding to the entertainment of the large number of guests expected has been overlooked.

The Jewish Aid society is a widespread organization and their affairs are always the finest. The party of next Friday is a benefit affair for the Jewish war sufferers.

Among the especially pleasing numbers on the program will be the singing, dancing and readings to be given by the Jewish children of Ogden. The little folks have been carefully trained and will undoubtedly be the bright feature of the evening's entertainment. Not the least of the attractions will be little Miss Cecelia Cohn, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. Cohn of this city. The little girl is a remarkably clever reader for one of her years and she will appear in a number of selected recitations.

Following the program there will be refreshments served, and at 9 o'clock dancing will be the entertainment for which Miss Lillian Thatcher's orchestra will furnish a fine program of the latest dance music.

Mrs. A. Cohn and Mrs. J. Benowitz are to preside at this affair as hostesses.

was a lovely basket of yellow and white dahlias combined with ferns. At each plate were dainty place cards in the same color.

Fourteen members of the club were present as follows: Mr. and Mrs. F. J. Van Ness, Mr. Van Ness acting as toastmaster; Mr. and Mrs. James Sarver, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Bishoff, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Spence, Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Taylor, Mr. and Mrs. Edward C. Osborne, Mr. and Mrs. F. E. Heintzelman. Following the dinner, which was a delicious one, the party spent an hour at the Berthana.

M. I. A. Meeting. The first M. I. A. meeting of the winter in Pleasant View will be held Sunday evening when the members will be addressed by Dr. Emmett, who will use as his subject, "Health and Tobacco." There will be several musical selections preceding the address.

Drama Club. Members of the Drama club are meeting this afternoon at the home of Miss Dorothy Wright, 2541 Van Buren avenue. Miss Myra Grout and Miss Wright are the hostesses. A program of special interest has been arranged as follows: "The Pardon"..... Mrs. E. A. Larkin "Miss Minnie Moore Brown"..... Miss Minnie Moore Brown Piano selection, "Achille"..... Miss Carrie Browning

SOC CLUBS. St. Joseph's Sewing Society. Mrs. Don Boyle will act as hostess to the members of St. Joseph's Sewing society in the church hall Thursday afternoon at 2 o'clock.

Sempere Musical Society. The ladies of the Sempere Musical society will meet at the home of Mrs. Melba Read Jones, 519 Thirteenth street, Tuesday afternoon, next, at 2 o'clock. Mrs. J. E. Ferraro will give a paper on "The History of American Music," and Mrs. Leslie Saville and Miss Dorothy Wright will give vocal selections. Miss Carrie Browning will preside at the piano.

Episcopal Guild. Members of the Episcopal Guild will meet at the home of Mrs. Thomas Conway, 745 Twenty-fifth street, Wednesday afternoon, next, at 2:30 o'clock.

Baptist Missionary Society. The ladies of the Baptist Missionary society will meet at the home of Mrs. J. W. Ramey, 2137 Porter avenue, Tuesday afternoon, next, at 2:30 o'clock, when Mrs. Ramey, Mrs. Wilson and Mrs. Rayfield will be hostesses.

Daughters of Mormon Battalion. One of the most delightful meetings of the Daughters of the Mormon Battalion will be held at the home of Mrs. Ethel Hunter in Riverdale after-noon. There was a fine representation present and following the business and election of officers, the ladies enjoyed a social hour and refreshments.

At Country Club. The weekly dinner dance at the Ogden Golf and Country club was held last evening and was thoroughly enjoyed by a large number of the club members and their ladies.

B-Sharp Club. The meeting of the B-Sharp club will be held at the home of Miss Beatrice Chilton, 123 Herrick avenue, Wednesday afternoon, when a program of music will be given.

Martha Society. At the regular meeting of the Martha Society ladies last Monday at the Day Nursery, the members made the first arrangements for their annual ball which will be given in the Berthana about the 15th to 20th of November. This year's event will probably outclass previous events and will officially open the social season. Mrs. E. O. Watts, president of the society, will have her committees appointed early in the coming week and the members will begin active work.

Last year the ball was postponed because of the epidemic and because of war activities.

Presbyterian Ladies. The women of the First Presbyterian church will meet Tuesday afternoon in the church for the monthly social and business meeting. Refreshments will be served.

Philathea Class. The Philathea of the First Baptist Sunday school entertained at an old-fashioned taffy pull in the parlors of the church Friday evening. The members of the class and a number of their friends were present. The affair was very informal and a delightful evening was enjoyed. Those present were: Misses Charlotte Skeen, Myrtle Huss, Maud and Mattie Stevens, Ethel Vaughn, Cora Smith, Eugenia Dunsmore, Ida and Mattie Wyson, Starkey, Webb, Eva May, Dorothy McBratney and Messrs. Vaughn, Rhoden Brooks, Tatso, Collins, Huss, Lauck, Stanfill, Vaughn, Gwinn; Mr. and Mrs. John Gebhardt and Captain and Mrs. Ray Ward.

Congregational Aid Society. The regular fortnightly meeting of the Ladies' Aid society of the First Congregational church met yesterday afternoon at the home of the president, Mrs. J. R. Wren, 2352 Jackson avenue. The meeting was one of the largest of the present session and great enthusiasm was manifest in the schemes

Miss West, supreme commander of the association, decorated Mrs. Larison with a solid gold pin. The gift was made in recognition of distinguished service.

Following the addresses last evening a social hour was enjoyed and a musical program was given. Mrs. Agnes Warner sang in very fine voice two numbers. Refreshments were served by a special committee.

planned for the raising of the $500 which the ladies have pledged to the church organ fund. Keen interest is also being manifested in the Sunday school class of the society, which is under the leadership of Mrs. George J. Kelly, the subject of study for which is "Jesus of Nazareth," by Professor Burton of the University of Chicago. Members are taking up their missionary activities with interest under the direction of Mrs. E. P. Mills and Mrs. O. A. Parmley.

At the close of the business session a luncheon was served by the committee for the day, Mrs. J. R. Wren, Mrs. Shields and Miss Edith Matthews.

Acacia Club. Members of the Acacia club will meet Friday afternoon, October 17, at the home of Mrs. Leroy Pugmire on Eccles avenue. The club ladies are asked to be present at 2:30 o'clock.

OGDEN YOUNG MAN WEDS SALT LAKE GIRL

Bert Fitzpatrick, teller in the Ogden State bank and Miss Hazel Jaensch of Salt Lake City were married Wednesday morning in Salt Lake City at the Lady of Lords church, Reverend Flynn performing the nuptial mass. The ceremony was a pretty one and was attended by a number of friends and relatives of the bride and groom. The bride was charmingly gowned as was her bridesmaid, Miss McEntee. Charles Maguire of Ogden was best man to the groom. Following the wedding ceremony a breakfast was served at the home of the bride's parents, after which the wedded pair left for a honeymoon trip to Denver and Colorado Springs.

Mr. and Mrs. Fitzpatrick are to make their home in Ogden.

FROM SALT LAKE CITY.

Mrs. A. H. Barnhart of Salt Lake City is now a resident of Ogden. For the present she is residing at the home of her mother, Mrs. John Eayre, 728 Twenty-seventh street.

TO RESIDE IN CAPITAL.

Mrs. Fred G. Clark, son Harold and daughter, Marjorie, left Ogden last Thursday for Salt Lake City, where they are to make their home. The family has purchased a very fine home on Ninth East street and will be pleased to greet Ogden friends.

Dr. Clark, who is now doing special work in the New York post-graduate hospital, will join his family about December 1.

GO TO EASTERN COLLEGE.

Miss Gertrude Foulger of this city and Willard Doney, also of Ogden have gone to Chicago, where they are to enter the Northern Illinois college. The young people aspire to be opticians.

FAREWELL PARTY FOR MISSIONARY.

In the Fifth ward last evening a

Miss Miriam Rowbotham.

Miss Miriam Rowbotham, whose marriage to Mr. J. Roland Farr will occur next Wednesday in the Salt Lake temple, has been the guest of honor at a number of very pleasing affairs during the time since her engagement was announced and not the least charming of the several parties was the parcel shower given by Mrs. Enoch Farr last Thursday evening. The affair was a surprise to the bride-to-be who received some very pretty gifts. The luncheon served by Mrs. Farr was perfectly prepared.

farewell party was given for Emerson

Richard Douglas, who is soon to leave on a mission to the southern states. The program for the evening's entertainment was given in the chapel and was indeed enjoyable. It was followed by a dancing party in the amusement hall.

The program as given follows: Devotional Service, led by Mrs. Thomas Brown.

Report of Corresponding Secretary, Mrs. L. M. Gillilan, assisted by the Presbyterian presidents and Mrs. O. F. Wall of Mt. Pleasant.

Opening exercises.

Reading—Mrs. Leslie English.

Report of Missionary Education—Miss Josie Curtis.

Special music, solo—Miss Martha Chausse.

Address, "Receiving of Ill Little Ones"—Miss Higgins.

At the Presbyterian church.

Thursday afternoon the Women's synodical society continued their convention at the First Presbyterian church of this city and a large number of members and interested visitors from throughout the state were present.

Mrs. Adelaide Aldrich gave a splendid talk on the missionary society and the "New Era." She especially emphasized four points, the erection of altars in the home, enlistment campaign for the people, missionary campaign and financial campaign.

Mrs. H. Norton Johnson spoke on "The Quiet Hour and Its Meaning," and Miss Higgins gave an account of the work done among the Chinese girls in California.

Mrs. George Davies was re-elected as president of the Women's Synodical Missionary society of this state. The program as given at the convention meeting follows:

Cello and piano selection, Miss Dorothy Nichols and Miss Edna Christensen.

Cello and piano selection, "The Palms" (Faure), Miss Dorothy Nichols and Miss Edna Christensen.

Soprano solo, "Ecstasy" (Beach), Mrs. Myrtle B. Higley.

Following the program, a dancing party will be given in the amusement hall, with the best of music. Members and friends are cordially invited to come.

INFORMAL TEA.

An informal tea was given by Miss Katherine Fitzgerald last Tuesday afternoon for the local members of the National Greek-Letter Sororities. Over the top of the organization of a Pan-Hellenic association was discussed.

Another meeting is to be held soon to complete the organization. Following are the names of the societies represented at the tea: Phi Beta Phi, Delta Delta Delta, Chi Omega, Alpha Chi Omega, Alpha Xi Delta, Delta Gamma and Kappa Kappa Gamma.

MRS. W. R. EMMETT HOSTESS.

Mrs. W. R. Emmett of 2132 Washington avenue was hostess to the members of the Weber Stake Relief society at her home last Thursday afternoon, the ladies spending the time in needlework and social chat. About 5 o'clock the hostess served a nicely prepared luncheon. The dining table was pretty with a vase of huge yellow and white chrysanthemums as the central decoration. Following are the names of the guests present: Mrs. F. J. Stevens, Mrs. E. I. Rich, Mrs. Alice Harris, Mrs. Ellen J. Stevens, Mrs. James W. Ure, Mrs. Agnes Herrick, Mrs. Emma Shreve, Mrs. H. E. Woodmansee, Mrs. I. N. Cooley, Mrs. Moroni Poulter, Mrs. Mary Boyle and Mrs. W. H. Petty.

Miss Mary Charlesworth.

Numbering among the nuptial events of the autumn will be the wedding of Miss Mary Charlesworth, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Benjamin Charlesworth of 3550 Lincoln avenue, and Arden Broadbent, also of this city. The wedding is to occur next Thursday, October 16. The couple will go on a trip following the ceremony and later will make their home in this city.
